City of New Orleans

Mayor LaToya Cantrell

Dear Friends,

It is my absolute pleasure as the Mayor of the City of New Orleans to welcome you to the 2019 "Holidays New Orleans Style," a month-long holiday celebration of all things New Orleans including live, local music; world-famous cuisine;

special shopping experiences; and uniquely New Orleans traditions.

Holidays New Orleans Style is one of our City's signature events, with something for everyone. Renowned artists perform free concerts at historic St. Louis Cathedral and St. Augustine Church; Celebration in the Oaks fills City Park with joy and laughter; NOLA ChristmasFest delights with ice skating and family fun; and candlelight caroling in Jackson Square brings the community together.

There is rarely a "Silent Night" in New Orleans. Follow the trumpet music to Bourbon, Frenchmen and Fulton streets for authentic New Orleans music. Celebrate the New Year with us, and stay to watch the Sugar Bowl at the Superdome.

As you celebrate the holiday season with your family, neighbors and friends, remember all that we have accomplished and are grateful for and use that to fuel you as we continue to move forward in 2020.

To you and your loved ones, I wish you a happy holiday season and a wonderful New Year. The energy of our city and her people is unmatched and the culture unparalleled. We invite you to experience every moment of it.

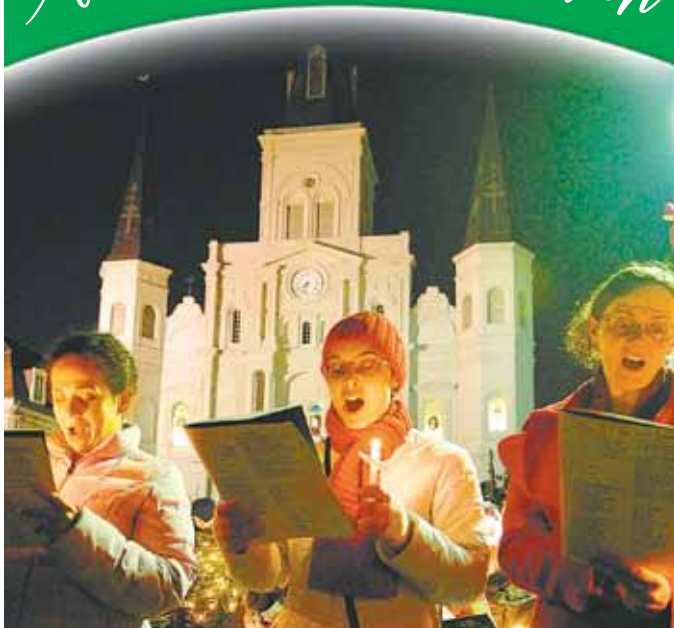

Sincerely,

LaToya Cantrell

Mayor

Washington Artillery Park,

700 Decatur St.; (504) 636-6400

Free & open to the public

The French Market Corporation hosts the lighting of a fleur-de-lis topped tree across from Jackson Square as a way to kickoff the holiday season in the French Quarter. Live music and family entertainment begins at 5:30pm, followed by FMC's annual tree lighting at 6:30pm. The night culminates in a special fireworks show sponsored by New Orleans Tourism Marketing Corporation.

Creole Holiday Traditions

HolidayNewOrleans.com/16356

11/25-1/4 (hourly tours Thurs-Tue, 10am-3pm)

Hermann-Grima Historic House,

820 St. Louis St.; (504) 525-5661

Adults: $15; Children 8-18: $12;

Children under 8: Free

Discover Creole holiday traditions from the 19th century while touring the Hermann-Grima House and slave quarters, an example of historic preservation and interpretation in the French Quarter. The culmination of the Creole holiday season was a New Year's Day celebration when New Orleanians called upon one another and exchanged gifts. While on tour, visitors will learn about local methods of holiday decorating, culinary traditions, and the experience of the enslaved men and women who made the fanciful holiday celebrations possible.

A 19th Century Christmas

HolidayNewOrleans.com/16364

St. Charles Streetcar,

Start: Willow Streetcar Barn,

For route details visit website;

Free & open to the public

The Phellows are an historic Mardi Gras organization that first took to the streets in the 1800's. Known for satirical parades, today's krewe members' costumes often reflect topical themes. Every year on Twelfth Night, the krewe participates in a "Carnival Countdown." Afterwards, the krewe loads up on a streetcar for a merry ride up and down the entire St. Charles Streetcar line. Gather along the tracks to cheer, wave and catch the first beads of Mardi Gras season with the Phunny Phorthy Phellows!

REVEILLON is a feast celebrated throughout the Francophone world. Derived from the French word "waking," Reveillon menus were comprised of exceptionally lavish foods historically served at midnight on Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve. Today, Reveillon is celebrated nightly during the Christmas Season in New Orleans' finest restaurants.

RESTAURANT & COURTYARD

A NEW ORLEANS FIXTURE FOR NEARLY A CENTURY.

REVEILLON

Pronounced 'rě-vē-ŏn
(HINT: THE 'L'S ARE SILENT!)

In the late 1800s and the first decade or so of the 20th century, New Orleans' Creole families celebrated Reveillon (derived from the French word reveiller, which means "to awaken") twice during the holidays. The first Reveillon came after Midnight Mass on Christmas Eve, when families returned from St. Louis Cathedral to break a daylong fast. This meal typically consisted of egg dishes, sweetbreads, and Creole specialties, such as daube glacé. It often ended with a cake filled with a fruit confection, dripping with wine or rum, and topped with whipped cream.

New Year's Eve brought another Reveillon, usually shared among several families. This more elaborate meal featured eggnog, fancy pastries, meringues, sugar sculptures, and crystallized fruits. By late afternoon, families would return home to a light supper followed by a night of singing and dancing—with wine and whiskey for the gentlemen and cordials and liqueurs for the ladies.

Today's Reveillon is celebrated throughout the Christmas season in restaurants throughout the City. Menus combine ageless Creole cuisine with more contemporary New Orleans dishes, but the spirit of the past remains. In fact, some of our Reveillon restaurants—Antoine's, Commander's Palace, Galatoire's, and Tujague's—are more than 100 years old! Revel in nostalgia and join us for Reveillon—the authentic taste of Holidays New Orleans Style!

Types of reveillon menus offered:

Reveillon Traditional

A rich, special occasion menu created in the style of, and inspired by, the tastes of the original Creoles

Reveillon Contemporary

A rich, special occasion menu utilizing preparation techniques and products of the modern day not necessarily available to the original Creoles

B'Reveillon

Brunch based on the Reveillon celebration

Petite Reveillon

A four course small plates option for guests who would like to experience a Reveillon meal on a smaller scale

Reveillon on the Rocks

Classic and original cocktails that celebrate Reveillon one-sip-at-a-time

Menus and pricing subject to change based on seasonal ingredient availability

PAPA NOËL

Hotels throughout the city welcome you to Holidays New Orleans Style with discounted Papa Noël room rates and special offers. These discounts make it easier to spend more time enjoying the great food, music, and events of the season.

Please note: Papa Noël rates are subject to availability and blackout dates.

1851 Mansion on St. Charles

HolidayNewOrleans.com/15976

2409 St. Charles Ave.

(504) 236-3828

Mention Papa Noël Special for 5-10% discount. Each guest will receive a 24 hour streetcar pass.

Proprietor Miss Paula, a preservationist and New Orleans' native, has restored this uptown residence into its original grandeur and elegance with modern guest rooms furnished with period antiques. Steps away from the front door, take advantage of the St. Charles streetcar to travel to holiday events or a Reveillon dinner.

HolidayNewOrleans.com/15651

1422 N. Rampart St.

(504) 947-4475 / (800) 842-4748

Papa Noël rates from $69, blackout dates apply.

An 1800s bordello that catered to society's most elite now brings peace and joy to Papa Noël guests. A romantic B&B with courtyard awaits, an easy walk to French Quarter attractions, Bourbon and Frenchman Streets, and other festive places. Enjoy free Lagniappe: INSIDER EGuides, local phone calls, WiFi, welcome drink (wine or beer), bottled water, and continental breakfast served in the dining room. Gated secure parking and public transport are available.

Ace Hotel

HolidayNewOrleans.com/17293

600 Carondelet St.

(504) 900-1180

Papa Noël guests receive up to 25% off.

The Ace Hotel New Orleans' holiday to-do list is as follows: break bread for The Feast of The Seven Fishes at Josephine Estelle, listen to the soulful sounds of songbirds inside Three Keys, stuff stockings with goods from Freda, Friend, DNO, Parker Barber, and the Ace Hotel Shop, throw back an oyster for good luck at Seaworthy, drink something seasonal from Stumptown Coffee, toast to someone loved at the Lobby Bar and kiss your future self hello at Alto, a heated rooftop garden. Here is a little tip for holiday travelers: savings are best on weekdays including Christmas Week. @aceneworleans
